Guidelines

- These guidelines are issued with the aim of enhancing compliance in the execution of duties by Public Officer and Nominated persons.
- This power of attorney form should be completed by the authorized officer in terms of our Domestic Taxes laws as approved by the Commissioner General.
- Persons who do not have capacity in law to act for any person are disqualified from being appointed representative by the instrument of this power of attorney.
- One or more of the obligations for which the power of attorney is being concluded must be ticked.
- A mandate under this instrument is limited to a 12 month period.
- The appointed representative shall be a person with a clean compliance history. This shall be an instrument by which the person endeavors to comply accordingly.
- This instrument must be completed in full. Where required information is not provided therein, the instrument shall be interpreted as incomplete and therefore regarded as invalid.
- In the event where additional information is to be submitted, attachments may be affixed to this application.
- Termination of agency before the approved period must always be communicated in writing to the Commissioner General, otherwise the agency is for all intents and purposes deemed to be in force.
- Where a public officer appoints an artificial person, the name of the officer responsible for such representation must be specified. In the event the appointed officer resigns from the employment of the artificial agent, the Power of Attorney must be amended accordingly.
- Where an individual is acting on behalf of a company, the individual's personal documents must be attached.
